Dear Sir:

Lawrence, Kansas, November 11, 1900.

Hon. Geo. W. Martin,
Sec. Kans. Historical Society,
Topeka, Kans.

X X X X X X X

The pamphlet together with this cross sheet contains a copy of the Journal of the Topeka Constitutional Convention, of which body I was secretary. I was making this copy in Leach's room at Lawrence in November, 1855, with my friend San Tappan as companion, when the leaders of the pro-slavery party, Gen. Reid, San Tappan and Gen. Smith to Blazer's Point, to attend a meeting ~~call~~ called because of the matters, and before we got back to Lawrence we had helped, each of us in our way, Gov. Brown to quit the country of Sheriff Jones.

Subsequent events caused me to discontinue making the copy for a time. Kansas was not admitted into the Union under that constitution, it has become the Journal of a "lost cause."

Samuel C. Smith.
